MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Anthony J. Bean Burpee appeals from the judgment of the District Court (Biddeford, Janelle, J.) amending the parties' divorce judgment relating to shared primary residence, a parenting schedule, child support, and allocation of tax exemptions for the children. The amendments were in response to his motion. Anthony contends that the court erred when it modified the divorce judgment's allocation of the tax exemptions for the children and when it determined the parties' respective incomes, which he asserts have changed, and ordered the amount for the child support award. Anthony's contentions essentially seek to challenge fact-findings and discretionary decisions made by the court based on the record provided. No transcript of the court proceedings has been provided to support the appeal. Without a transcript or an alternative statement of the evidence, M.R. App. P. 5(d), we must infer that there is sufficient evidence in the record to support the findings of fact and discretionary decisions made by the trial court relating to allocation of the income tax deductions and the parties' incomes, which served as a basis for the court's determination regarding Anthony's child support obligation. See Rainbow v. Ransom, 2010 ME 22, ¶ 3, 990 A.2d 535, 536.

The entry is:

Judgment affirmed.
