MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Zachary Bubar appeals from a judgment of conviction of one count of manslaughter, (Class A), 17-A M.R.S. § 203(1)(A) (2012), four counts of aggravated assault with use of a dangerous weapon, (Class B), 17-A M.R.S. §§ 2(9)(A), 208(1)(B) (2012), and four counts of aggravated driving to endanger, (Class C), 29-A M.R.S. § 2413(1-A) (2012), entered by the court (Fritzsche, J.) after a bench trial. Contrary to Bubar’s contention, the evidence, when viewed in the light most favorable to the State, was sufficient for a fact-finder to rationally have found each element of the offenses charged beyond a reasonable doubt. See State v. Gorman, 648 A.2d 967, 967-968 (Me. 1994) (setting forth standard of review); State v. Seymour, 461 A.2d 1060, 1061 (Me. 1983) (concluding that criminal charge based on defendant’s reckless use of his motor vehicle as a dangerous weapon did not require the State to additionally “establish that the defendant intentionally used the motor vehicle as a weapon”).

The entry is:

Judgment affirmed.
