

DANIEL C. WHITTET

v.

ROWLAND S. WHITTET

Submitted on Briefs July 30, 2014
Decided August 5, 2014

Panel: SAUFLEY, C.J., and ALEXANDER, SILVER, MEAD, GORMAN, and JABAR, JJ.

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Rowland S. Whittet appeals from a judgment of the Superior Court (Knox County, Hjelm, J.) dismissing his post-judgment motion to alter or amend the court's October 2, 2013, judgment and denying his motion to extend the time to file an appeal. See M.R. Civ. P. 59(e); M.R. App. P. 2(b)(3), (b)(5)(A). Rowland's appeal of the court's October 2, 2013, judgment was untimely filed, and thus, we confined our review in this appeal only to the court's December 11, 2013, order on Rowland's post-judgment motions. Because Rowland provided no transcript of the proceeding, and he does not argue that the court erred in dismissing his motion to alter or amend the judgment as not timely or in denying his motion to extend the time for appeal, we conclude that he has waived these issues on appeal as a result of his failure to brief them. See Mehlhorn v. Derby, 2006 ME 110, ¶ 11, 905 A.2d 290; see also Alexander, Maine Appellate Practice § 404 at 249 (4th ed. 2013).

The entry is:

Judgment affirmed.

On the briefs:

Rowland S. Whittet, pro se appellant

Daniel C. Whittet did not file a brief

Knox County Superior Court docket numbers RE-2011-26 & 27
FOR CLERK REFERENCE ONLY