MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Michael A. Leduc appeals from an order issued by the District Court (Portland, Kelly, J.), dismissing his complaint for divorce after he failed to appear at the final divorce hearing. Catherine A. Leduc appeared at the hearing, and on her counterclaim, the court issued a judgment of divorce, setting aside her non-marital property to her and dividing the marital estate between the parties.

Although Michael argues that the court erred in its division of property, he has failed to file a transcript on appeal. In the absence of a transcript, we must “assume that there was sufficient evidence to support the findings.” Baker v. Baker, 444 A.2d 982, 984 (Me. 1982). Given this assumption, Michael has not demonstrated that the property division was affected by error.

The entry is:

Judgment affirmed.
