

In re BRYCE L. et al.

Submitted on Briefs January 17, 2002
Decided February 5, 2002

Panel: SAUFLEY, C.J., and CLIFFORD, RUDMAN, DANA, ALEXANDER, and CALKINS, JJ.

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

The mother of Bryce and Dani L. appeals from the judgment of the District Court (Dover-Foxcroft, MacMichael, J.) finding that her children are in jeopardy to their health and welfare and placing them in custody of the Department of Human Services. Contrary to the mother's contention, there was sufficient evidence for the court to find that the children are in jeopardy and that the circumstances of jeopardy would continue if the children remained with her. See In re Breana N., 1999 ME 191, ¶ 19, 742 A.2d 911, 915. Further, the court did not exceed the bounds of its discretion by placing the children in custody of the Department. See 22 M.R.S.A. § 4036 (1992 & Supp. 2001); In re David W., 568 A.2d 513, 515-16 (Me. 1990); In re Andrea W., 537 A.2d 596, 598 (Me. 1988).

The entry is:

Judgment affirmed.

Attorney for appellant:

Randy G. Day, Esq.
P O Box 58
Garland, ME 04939

Attorneys for appellee:

G. Steven Rowe, Attorney General
Matthew Pollack, Asst. Atty. General
Debra Gotlib, Asst. Atty. General
6 State House Station
Augusta, ME 04333-0006

Guardian ad Litem:

Tonya Johnson, Esq.
P O Box 189
Dover-Foxcroft, ME 04426

Attorney for father:

Richard McCarthy, Esq.
P O Box 549
Pittsfield, ME 04967