MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Timothy Look appeals from the judgment of the Superior Court (Washington County, Mills, C.J.) convicting him of OUI in violation of 29-A M.R.S.A. § 2411(1) (1996) (Class D).¹ Because Look did not sufficiently preserve his contention that he made his statement that he had consumed three beers while he was the subject of a custodial interrogation, we affirm the trial court's judgment. See Berg v. Bragdon, 1997 ME 129, ¶¶ 9-10, 695 A.2d 1212, 1214-15 (explaining that an issue was not sufficiently preserved when necessary subsidiary facts in support of argument had not been fully developed for a proper determination on appeal).
