

STATE OF MAINE

v.

RICHARD J. WILLIS

Submitted on Briefs October 1, 2003
Decided October 28, 2003

Panel: SAUFLEY, C.J., and CLIFFORD, RUDMAN, DANA, ALEXANDER, CALKINS, and LEVY, JJ.

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Richard J. Willis appeals from the order of the District Court (Violations Bureau, Beliveau, J.), denying his motion, filed in May 2003, to reopen his adjudication for speeding, entered by default, after he failed to appear for hearing on December 3, 2001. Willis's motion was a belated attempt to challenge the 2001 adjudication. It was well past the then applicable thirty-day time period for filing a proper notice of appeal. M.R. App. P. 2(b)(3) (2001).¹ The trial court did not abuse its discretion in denying the motion to reopen.

The entry is:

Judgment affirmed.

¹ Amended to 21 days, effective January 1, 2002.

Attorneys for State:

Evert N. Fowle, District Attorney
Court Street
Skowhegan, ME 04976

For defendant:

Richard J. Willis
56 Ridgeway Circle
North Waterboro, ME 04061-4679