MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Eleanor Adley appeals from a conviction of a Class C theft entered after a jury trial in the Superior Court (Hancock County, Mead, J.). Adley challenges the sufficiency of the evidence, arguing that the State did not prove she intended to deprive the owner of the use of the property. In addition, Adley argues that the State provided no evidence as to the value of the property; therefore, the restitution order should be vacated. Contrary to Adley's argument, the evidence was sufficient to sustain the jury's verdict as well as the order of restitution. See State v. Brewer, 1997 ME 177, ¶ 29, 699 A.2d 1139, 1146.
