MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Randal S. Herr appeals from a post-judgment order entered in the Superior Court (Cumberland County, Humphrey, C.J.) denying Herr's request for the names and addresses of the jurors in Herr's 2002 trial in which he was convicted of theft and several motor vehicle offenses.¹ Those convictions were affirmed. State v. Herr, 2003 ME 110, 831 A.2d 407. Contrary to his contentions, the court did not abuse its discretion in determining that it was not in the interests of justice to release the names. See Public Information and Confidentiality, Admin. Order JB-05-20 (effective Jan. 1, 2006); see also 14 M.R.S. § 1254-B(3) (2005).
