

IN RE TRINADI V.

Argued February 14, 2008
Decided February 26, 2008

Panel: SAUFLEY, C.J., and CLIFFORD, ALEXANDER, LEVY, SILVER, and MEAD, JJ.

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

[¶1] The mother appeals from an order of the Oxford County Probate Court (Hanley, J.) terminating her parental rights to her daughter Trinadi. We affirm the Probate Court's well-reasoned decision, finding, contrary to the mother's contentions, that the court could reasonably have been persuaded, based on competent record evidence, that it was proved to be highly probable that: (1) the mother is unable to protect Trinadi from jeopardy and that these circumstances are unlikely to change within a time reasonably calculated to meet Trinadi's needs; (2) the mother is unable to take responsibility for Trinadi within a time reasonably calculated to meet Trinadi's needs; and (3) termination is in Trinadi's best interest.
