Panel: SAUFLEY, C.J., and CLIFFORD, LEVY, and MEAD, JJ.

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Bradley J. Enna appeals from a judgment of divorce entered in the District Court (Portland, O'Neil, J.) on Ellen R. Enna's complaint. Contrary to Bradley's contention, the court neither clearly erred nor exceeded its discretion in fashioning its order of parental rights and responsibilities, including that portion of the order declining to award Bradley any visitation with the parties' children. See 19-A M.R.S. § 1653 (2007); Hinkley v. Hinkley, 2000 ME 64, ¶ 7, 749 A.2d 752, 754. The court also committed no error of fact or law in valuing and dividing the parties' marital assets and debts. See 19-A M.R.S. § 953 (2007); Leary v. Leary, 2007 ME 63, ¶ 9, 926 A.2d 186, 188. Finally, the court (Goranites, J.) acted within its discretion in permitting the sale of the marital residence pending appeal. See M.R. Civ. P. 62(g); Adams v. Adams, 620 A.2d 286, 287 (Me. 1993).

The entry is:

Judgment affirmed.
