

STATE OF MAINE

v.

KEITH S. BERRY

Submitted on Briefs February 10, 2010
Decided February 25, 2010

Panel: ALEXANDER, LEVY, SILVER, MEAD, GORMAN, and JABAR, JJ.

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION

Keith S. Berry appeals from the judgments of the Violations Bureau (Newport, Sparaco, J.) adjudicating him to have committed the offenses of failure to stop at a stop sign, 29-A M.R.S. § 2057(7) (2009), and failure to display a valid inspection sticker, 29-A M.R.S. § 1768(7) (2009). Contrary to Berry's contentions, most of which are frivolous, a jury trial is not available for traffic infraction cases, State v. Nugent, 2002 ME 111, ¶ 3, 801 A.2d 1001, 1002; there is no speedy trial issue when Berry was tried within three months of the inspection sticker charge and ten months of the stop sign charge; Berry's claimed ownership of the United States Constitution does not exempt him from the traffic laws of the State of Maine; and the court could properly decide the credibility and weight to be given to the evidence presented by the State and the evidence presented by Berry. State v. Moores, 2006 ME 139, ¶ 7, 910 A.2d 373, 375.
